

You are very welcome to join the Corrymeela Community at our Belfast Office for a series of four evening discussions on the nativity texts of the gospels of Luke and Matthew.

This series will explore the powerful descriptions of the birth of Jesus, the genealogies, the atmosphere of political conflict into which these narratives speak and some details that are either overlooked or invented (for instance, that Jesus wasn't born in a stable).

These gatherings will be led by Pádraig Ó Tuama. Pádraig is the leader of the Corrymeela Community, a poet and theologian. He is a popular speaker and broadcaster and lectures on the topics of the gospels, conflict and poetry.

These seminars are free, and all are welcome, suggested donation per seminar £5. Tea and coffee (and perhaps the occasional mince pie) will be provided.

These gatherings will take place at our Belfast Office on the following dates:

Thursday 24th November 7pm - 8.30pm

Thursday 1st December 7pm - 8.30pm

Thursday 8th December 7pm - 8.30pm

Thursday 15th December 7pm - 8.30pm

All are welcome.

The address is: Corrymeela, 83 University Street, Belfast BT7 1HP.

If you wish to contact us, you can contact us on belfast@corrymeela.org

corrymeela 