This residential summer school is designed for people interested in creativity and wellbeing. Please note: The summer school will neither qualify persons as art therapists nor is it to be seen as personal therapy; rather it will provide an introduction and/ or extend ideas and skills.

NIGAT, formed in 1976 became a Registered Charity in 1989, re-registered with the Charity Commission NI in 2016 (NIC103671). It is a membership organization, which is administered by a Voluntary Committee, elected annually at the AGM from within the membership group. Office bearers are elected from within the Committee Group. Due to its voluntary nature NIGAT has no office though there is now the Rita Simon Reading Room in Holywood. NIGAT can be contacted through the NIGAT secretary at The Rita Simon NIGAT Reading Room, King House, 39 High Street, Holywood, BT18 9AB or by emailing: nigatuk@gmail.com.

Annual membership fee is £30 (or £20 student/unemployed).
