

Conversations that Matter

What keeps our societies together?

Let's talk about diversity, democracy and migration

Who?

Conversations that matter is a programme being held over three residential weekends, for young adults aged 18-25 who are interested in engaging with critical changes in our society.

What?

This programme targets young adults from both the north and south of the island of Ireland. The purpose is to provide a space for a diverse group of participants to consider how these issues affect us in the present and what role we can play in building a more inclusive future.

Participants will have the opportunity to apply for an international study programme hosted in Germany from 2nd - 13th August 2017 which will focus on how these issues are experienced across Europe.

When?

Friday 10th - Sunday 12th February
 Friday 9th - Sunday 11th June
 Friday 13th - Sunday 15th October

Where?

Corrymeela, Ballycastle

Apply by 27th January,
 to do so please
click here.

Cost?

£20 per participant per residential, if cost is prohibitive please talk directly to us.

If you have any questions please email lisamooney@corrymeela.org

